NEW THIS WEEK

LET'S CONFESS! How important are words? When you think about it, words are essential. There is no communication without them. Everything we know, picture, and conceive of is identified in our minds by words. Words are essential because that is how the Lord communicates to us. It is in his word that we find out who he is, how much we need him, and what he has done to save us.

This is why God's word is the foundation of Christ-St. John's Lutheran School. God's word is life. Each morning as our students learn from God's word in Chris-Light or in Catechism class they are blessed as God draws them closer to him.

How important are words? God's word is necessary to know Jesus. How important are words? God wants our words to reflect and confess our love for him. Consider these words from Romans 10:10, "For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved."

That's how important words are. May our words always reflect the love of God in Christ, and may they confess our faith in him.

In Christian love,
Pastor Schultz
