NEW THIS WEEK

From the Principal: This week, the 7th and 8th Grade students will be discussing the process of the judicial branch. We have already gone over the legislative and the executive branch. While I was preparing for the lessons for the week, the analogy of our spiritual court case came to my mind. We are the ones on trial, with all our misdoings and sins in life laid out for the whole courtroom to see. We stand there, clearly guilty of all of the crimes committed against the Lord. However, the guilty sentence does not fall on us. Jesus Christ then steps in and takes the guilty sentence for us. He took all of the crimes against the Lord that we committed and took them on himself. Not only that, but he also then put on us his title of innocent.

We are forgiven of our sins. Jesus Christ, our Savior, takes our place on the cross with all of our sins. We are saved from the eternal death that we deserve. The court reads out the decision of not guilty! What a blessing we have that through Christ's death and resurrection, we are saved. May we continue to keep Christ as our focus in life in all that we do in praise towards him!

Blessings on your week!

In Christ,
Jace Fellers, Principal

Lent Services: The students will be dismissed in a different way on Wednesday during the Lenten season. The students will be picked up by the school door entrance (Door B). The families will follow the route as depicted in the diagram. Students will begin walking out at 2:45 pm.

Parents who are planning on taking their child(ren) to the service must retrieve their child(ren) from outside. Parents may go through the pickup line to get their child(ren) or may park and take their child(ren) into the service from the pickup line. Bus students will be picked up as normal. Please contact the school office of any changes.

Children must have permission from a parent or guardian to attend church with another family. This is to ensure that all children are being picked up by the proper individual. A phone call to the school office explaining the plan will suffice.
